Specific Use Rules for NMR Service

- ✓ Only authorised users will have access to the equipment. They will be given a user name, a password to access the computer controlling the spectrometer and a secure folder to save their experiment data.
- ✓ To use the equipment, users must reserve on the Biomolecular Interaction Platform web application in advance. Reservations are personal.
- ✓ To guarantee that there are no delays for the next user, make sure everything in the equipment is back in the correct conditions (e.g. standard temperature 25 °C and chiller status) when the shift is finished.
- ✓ At the end of the shift, users must logout leaving the used material in its right place.
- ✓ Users must register in the log book any incidence or observation that may be relevant to the rest of the users.
- ✓ Authorised users are responsible for their own consumables.
- ✓ Users will be liable for reimbursement if any faults/breakdowns are caused by negligence or misuse of the pulse programmes that are not included in the Bruker library.
