Specific Use Rules for SPRi Service

- ✓ Only authorised users will have access to the equipment. They will be given a user name, a password to access the computer controlling the spectrometer and a secure folder to save their experiment data.
- ✓ To use the equipment, users must reserve on the Biomolecular Interaction Platform web application in advance. Reservations are personal.
- ✓ The shifts are 24 hours long. They start at 8am and will also end at 8am the following day.
- ✓ To guarantee that there are no delays for the next user, make sure everything in the equipment is back in the correct conditions, including a proper cleaning of the instrument when the shift is finished.
- ✓ At the end of the shift, users must logout leaving the used material in its right place.
- ✓ Users must register in the log book any incidence or observation that may be relevant to the rest of the users.
- ✓ Authorised users are responsible for their own consumables and biochips. Biochips must be ordered and purchased from MTB by users. Cleaning solutions and running buffers are provided by BIP.
